What this guide is about:

I hope that you have gotten the gist of this guide from the title. Anyway, this guide will be covering the missions of the Aspha Miner race. This means that I will just be enumerating the objectives and reward of each mission until the last one. Ok? Good. Read on.

NOTE: Since Act 1 can be skipped, I won't include it. I also will not include the mission write-ups. That would make this guide TLTR (too long to read.)

What this guide is not about:

Please don't expect:

1. Stacking Strategies.
2. Money Making Tips.
3. UC Hacks.
4. Tips on relieving your stress.
5. How to reactivate your multiple accounts.

Now that's done... Onto the Mission Spoilers!

If you think this guide's finished, there's more text on the next page. ( :

Now if you're like me, who reads from back to front, that's just as cool as doing it otherwise. Well, since you're here anyway, this is the part where I give you general mission tips. Read on:

1. If you like a mission reward, especially system giveaways: Plan ahead. You don't want to get a Titan after you already have 6 X'ed systems. Get my point? That's unless you have the system restructure project up your sleeve. Otherwise, you'll be forced to destroy the inner 6 if you want that Titan as your main system. Pretty much that sucks.

2. Research ahead. After you restart your empire, hopefully you'll look at this guide and note down what you have to research in advance to finish some missions immediately

3. Do your missions while in DP. That's the best way. Yes, because you're mostly immune to interruptions especially from attacking empires. Also, you'll be encountering missions where you have to reach a certain amount of Power. Simply make the ships in your Out Post and you're done.

4. Make sure you feel pretty rich before doing the missions. How? Ask your lord to give you money and food. In the billions hopefully.

Final Thanks:
